Vallette Gallery is hosting one of a kind contemporary group exhibition showcasing exciting works by some of the best internationally-acclaimed and emerging Malaysian artists like Lim Kim Hai, Rafiee Ghani, Chiang Shih Wen, Abdul Mansoor, Donald Abraham, Faizal Suhif, and Jamil Zakaria from December 6 to January 10, 2014 – 2015. “SATU SENI” exhibition will feature 14 vibrant artworks including sculpture, print on canvas with mixed media, oil on canvas, acrylic, and graphic print on paper.

The walls and the space of Vallette Gallery will be embellished with vivid and vigorous art pieces that represent different schools and styles beginning with realism, cubism, abstract expressionism and ending with neo-expressionism.

Currently Malaysian art scene is steadily gaining acclaimed recognition with the emergence of unique painting and sculpture styles. Malaysia’s artists continue to acquire national and international prominence and elevation. Our gallery would like to secure the future of Malaysian talented artists and nation’s cultural heritage.

While Malaysia is establishing as a special place for contemporary art in the region, Vallette Gallery would like to bring new remarkable experience to the audience by showcasing the marvelous works of brilliant artists. The visitors will be able to observe the creative synergy of art.

An e-catalogue will be available at the time of the exhibition.

About Vallette Gallery
